

SECRET MISSION IDEAS

For Children-Junior GSS Agents

SECRET MISSIONS FOR SCHOOL

- Secretly write a nice note for a classmate telling him/her how great you think they are and secretly place it on their desks, hid it in one of their books, or backpack
- Write a note for a teacher and secretly leave it on their desk
- Leave a nice surprise note in a library book for someone to discover
- Secretly leave a snack on your teacher's desk
- Draw someone a picture and secretly leave it for them where they will find it with a nice note
- Secretly empty the trash in your classroom
- Secretly write a "Thank You" note on the chalk or White Board for your Teacher to discover
- Secretly write a note to your principal telling him/her how great your teacher is
- Whenever a student does or experiences an act of kindness, have them write it down on a strip of construction paper and link them to create a chain of kindness that can be hung in the classroom

SECRET MISSIONS FOR HOME

- Secretly do a chore for a brother or sister without them knowing.
- Secretly take out the trash at home without your parents or sibling knowing you did it
- Secretly do the dishes at home
- Secretly clean out your parent's car
- Secretly make someone else's bed
- Secretly place a kind message under a sibling's pillow
- Make a list of things you love about your family and secretly place it on the fridge
- Make a list of your grandparents best qualities and secretly send it to them with a nice note
- Pick or buy some flowers and secretly leave them for your Mom
- Work with your family to put together homeless "Kindness Bags" with sample-sized toothpaste, shampoo, socks, deodorant, in a small Ziploc bag, along with a toothbrush, comb, Band-Aids, Wipes, etc., and drop off at a homeless shelter or church.

SECRET MISSIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

- Make and secretly drop off cookies to your neighbors door
- Secretly pick up a neighbor's newspaper and place it by their front door
- Place a nice note of encouragement on the windshield of a car at the mall
- Write encouraging words on small pieces of colored paper and place/stick them on benches for people to find.
- Set up a Lemonade Stand or Bake Stand and secretly donate the profit to a charity
- Design Compassion Cards with kind messages and deliver them to a Senior Center for secret distribution to the residents
- Return someone's cart at the grocery store

